140		Jon Mein	jonmein@aol.com	01707 326130	The Rev Henry Small of St Albans and the missing £20,000 - in 1817 Small was appointed rector of St Albans Abbey. Late in 1834 he fled to France leaving behind substantial debts out of kilter with his income. This talk explores a surprising story that attracted the attention of the then Prime Minister and an inspiring resolution.	Rev. Henry Small of St Albans	50 mins	£40 - £60 (by negotiation)	included in fee	laptop, memory stick	projector & screen (laptop for back-up)	any	evenings & occasional daytimes	any
141		Jon Mein	jonmein@aol.com	01707 326130	The St Albans Canal - a canal linking St Albans to the wider world came close to being built in the 1790s. With the great and the good mobilized to support the project, expensive work was carried out in support of the necessary Act of Parliament. To great relief this received Royal Assent in July 1795. Then nothing happened. This talk explores the successes and failures of the canal's promoters.	St Albans canal	50 mins	£40 - £60 (by negotiation)	included in fee	laptop, memory stick	projector & screen (laptop for back-up)	any	evenings & occasional daytimes	any
142		Jon Mein	jonmein@aol.com	01707 326130	The Decline of the Inns in St Albans. This talk considers the various causes for the long decline of the inn trade in St Albans during the 18th and early 19th centuries.	St Albans inns	50 mins	£40 - £60 (by negotiation)	included in fee	laptop, memory stick	projector & screen (laptop for back-up)	any	evenings & occasional daytimes	any
143		Jon Mein	jonmein@aol.com	01707 326130	The Rise and Fall of the Public House in Victorian St Albans. In 1870, St Albans had one pub for around every 30 adult males. There were also five breweries, four of which were within 200 metres of the Clock Tower. This talk considers why there were so many pubs in the town as well as the causes for the subsequent decline.	St Albans pubs	50 mins	£40 - £60 (by negotiation)	included in fee	laptop, memory stick	projector & screen (laptop for back-up)	any	evenings & occasional daytimes	any

144		Jon Mein	jonmein@aol.com	01707 326130	From Pint Pot to Coffee Pot: the Temperance movement in C19 St Albans. In the late C19 thousands of coffee taverns were opened throughout the country, mainly as an adjunct to the Temperance movement. Their aim was to establish for the first time refreshment houses where the working class could get meals and non-alcoholic drinks at appropriately low prices. Using the St Albans tavern as an example, the talk throws light on changing attitudes to alcohol consumption throughout the country.	temperance movement in St Albans	50 mins	£40 - £60 (by negotiation)	included in fee	laptop, memory stick	projector & screen (laptop for back-up)	any	evenings & occasional daytimes	any
